

To whom it may concern:

The FRC is a grassroots organization that got Amendment 4 placed on the ballot in the 2018 elections. As you remember with Amendment 4, it dealt with the restoration of voting rights for formerly convicted persons.

The Florida Rights Restoration Coalition (FRC) wanted to make sure all county supervisors of elections had our phone number in case there was a question they were not able to answer about whether someone's right to vote was restored.

We recognize that returning citizens may contact your office via phone or in person with questions regarding their eligibility to register to vote or other matters related to the implementation of Amendment 4.

If there are any answers that you may be unable to provide that are related to Amendment 4, we would like for you to encourage individuals to contact our hotline via the information provided below.

The hotline number is: 1-877- MY- VOTE-0 (1-877-698-6830). We have a team of individuals on the phone who can answer most questions about voting eligibility under Amendment 4 passage. Please feel free to pass on our hotline number to anyone that may have a question.

If you have any questions we can answer, please do not hesitate to reach out and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

Thank You
